Note To All Prospective Members

Aikido is a Martial Art. Members are warned that there is always a possibility of personal injury, no matter how controlled the class. It is the member's responsibility to ensure that their licence is current prior to any training as failure to hold a current licence could jeopardise any insurance claims. All members are licensed through the British Aikido Board.

Photography

During Aikido training, 'action' or 'group' photographs or video may be taken, please indicate here if you do not wish images to be taken of yourself or child. Yes/No (Delete – As required, Also please advise your club instructor)

Data Protection Act

It is a requirement of the data protection act 1998 that persons give their written authorisation to have their details recorded. By signing below, you are allowing your personal details to be recorded both in the Aikido Development Society database and the British Aikido Board database. These databases are not distributed to any other third party and are not used for non Aikido related functions. Failure to sign below will mean you can not be a member of the Associations. For those persons under the age of 18 (Eighteen) please ensure a parent or legal guardian signs on your behalf.

Members Declaration

I accept that neither the Instructor nor the Aikido Development Society can be held liable for any injury, which occurs during a properly supervised class. On joining the Aikido Development Society, I agree to accept the Society's rules available from the ADS website and accept that the practice of Aikido involves the risk of injury.
